

Autumn 2013 Issue

The Autumn 2013 Asylum Issue is available now.
To get your copy: <http://www.asylumonline.net/subscribe>

Dina's Blog

"I have had 20 years of psychotherapy which definitely enabled a great deal of personal development for me, but I often wonder about the huge cost of my post-traumatic growth." Dina Poursanidou

Dina is a member of the Asylum Magazine Editorial Collective and has her own blog on the Asylum website.
Check out the blog at:

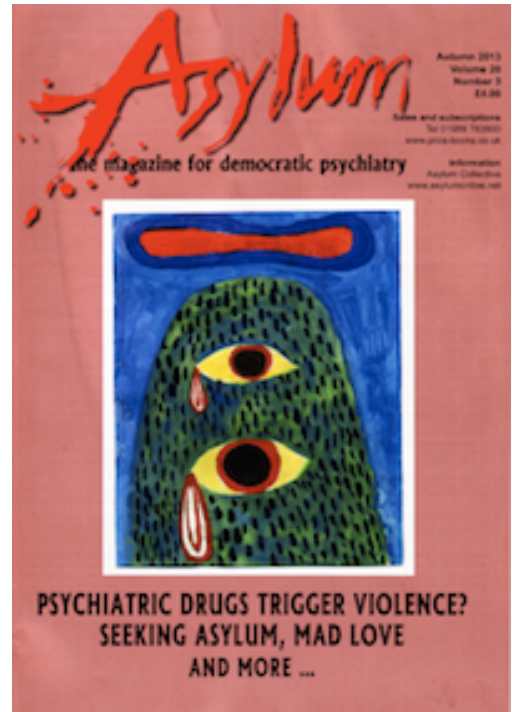

<http://www.asylumonline.net/dinas-blog>

Pictures, Cartoons, Jokes... Wanted!

Asylum needs pictures, cartoons, jokes, film reviews, book reviews and other creative material for publication in the magazine. Send contributions to editors@asylumonline.net

? Asylum Quiz ?

Who is a 'mental health user/survivor' and who is not?
There are no straightforward answers. Send us yours to editors@asylumonline.net

Forthcoming Asylum Issues

The next Asylum issue will be a special issue edited in Toronto, 'Mad Activism, Resistance & Transformation'. Other Asylum special issues on ECT, Arts and Creativity, and the US Survivor Movement will follow soon...

Upcoming Events

Workshops organised by Asylum Associates, Hearing Voices Network Sheffield, Paranoia Network & the Institute of Mental Health, Nottingham. Making Sense of Voices - Maastricht Interview Training (three days); Wirral Mind, Birkenhead - 15th, 16th and 17th Oct 2013. For booking and more information contact: Karen.sugars@nottsch.nhs.uk

November 11, 18, 29, 2013: Asylum contributes to the Trauma Group Film Screenings at Manchester Metropolitan University where 3 films on issues relating to mental health/mental illness will be shown. The 3 films are '15 Park Avenue', 'One flew over the cuckoo's nest' and 'Family Life'. More info at: <http://www.hssr.mmu.ac.uk/trauma/> and at <http://www.asylumonline.net/news/events/>

November 18th 2013, 6:30 – 8:30pm - The Social Causes of Psychosis: From Heresy to Certainty

An event for professionals who work with people with psychosis, as well as for those with personal experience of psychosis and their families and friends. Venue: Liverpool Quaker Meeting House, 22 School Lane, Liverpool L1 3BT. Speakers: John Read, Derry Hunter and Neil Caton. More info at: <http://www.asylumonline.net/news/events>